

novaMED Anaesthetic Fee

novaMED anaesthetic fee is billed in line with industry recommended and MBS approved rates. This is charged by novaMED one week before treatment. The anaesthetic fee is based on the anticipated length of the procedure including recovery time. You may be entitled to a rebate from Private Health Insurance or Medicare for the anaesthetic fee.

While we use our best endeavors to calculate the costs of your treatment accurately, sometimes due to circumstances out of our control, the actual costs may differ. In this event you give us authority to credit this card with your refund if your procedure takes less time than estimated or debit this card with your additional charges if your procedure takes longer than estimated.

CONSENT TO COSTS:

I hereby acknowledge, that all costs incurred as a result of the provision of services and treatment at novaMED remain my sole responsibility and costs attributable to my dental treatment as provided by my dental practitioner are also my responsibility for which I am liable.
